

Petra Groenland, Partner, KPMG Netherlands

In her professional life, Petra's purpose is to contribute to reliable financial and non-financial reporting as a certified public accountant, which requires acting with integrity. She embraces complexities and dilemmas as challenges. In her 30-year career with KPMG, she has been working with globally operating and listed companies, mainly in the semiconductors, chemicals, consumer products and airline industries. Petra studied and worked in the United States for KPMG for a number of years, and headed the US Accounting & Reporting Group in the Netherlands for over 10 years. Also, she is a chapter co-chair of the Netherlands chapter of Women Corporate Directors, a global network of female board directors.
