Giovanna is Partner and Director of the Spencer Stuart Global Board. She is Board and CEO and Financial Services Practice leader across EMEA. She advises clients across geographies, offering a broad range of services spanning leadership advisory and corporate governance. Giovanna is a trusted advisor to Boards and CEOs, having successfully helped numerous organizations across geographies to unlock the potential of their top talents and to optimize their corporate governance. She brings unparalleled understanding of the dynamics of senior leadership and Boards and an ability to connect and drive impact over time.

Giovanna regularly participates in conferences both at local and international level to foster and promote diversity and inclusion. She has been a Member of the G-20 Women's Forum Advisory Board.

Expertise in Financial Services and Board and CEO Advisory

- » Prior to joining Spencer Stuart, she has worked for leading international institutions; specifically, for over fifteen years she has held various leadership roles in GE Capital where she started her career in the M&A team in London with a focus on acquisitions mainly in Southern Europe. For several years she has led Business Development activity for GE Capital Group and has dealt with all the financial divisions. She has managed critical integration and restructuring processes in different areas of the financial services with a strong emphasis on strategy, sales and marketing functions.
- » At Spencer Stuart her work is characterized by a holistic approach that targets both CEOs and senior executives: she has successfully run marquee mandates on CEOs succession and Board's renewal as well as projects focused on governance of listed companies in regulated sectors.
- » Inclusion is a core differentiator of her work, she has selected and mentored numerous female directors and young executives from diverse professional and geographical backgrounds. She engages regularly in programs and initiatives focused on talent development.

Giovanna holds a degree in Business Administration from the Bocconi University in Milan and a Master's degree in Business Administration from ESADE (Spain). Giovanna has also completed studies at the Erasmus University in Rotterdam.
