

Prof. Dr. Anabel Ternès von Hattburg, Futurologist, author and founder of sustainable start-ups, head of the SRH Institute for sustainable management

Prof. Dr. Anabel Ternès is a futurologist, keynote speaker, author and founder of sustainable start-ups. The managing director of the Berlin SRH Institute for Sustainability Management and professor of communication management has many years of international management experience in business development, for example for Samsonite and Fielmann. Anabel Ternès is involved in several committees and boards, including as an advisory board member of Plant for the Planet, as President Germany of the Club of Budapest and International Embassy for Economic Affairs, as a supervisory board member of PAN, and as a member of the Club of Rome. Anabel Ternès has received several awards for her entrepreneurial and voluntary commitment, including the FEMALE FUTUROLOGIST GERMANY award, as an ambassador for the WOMEN'S BUSINESS initiative of the Federal Ministry of Economics, with the Google Impact Challenge Award and as an influencer as a LinkedIn Top Voice Sustainability.