

Marguerite Soeteman-Reijnen

Trusted thought leader and experienced (non-)executive director with an international strong track record of successfully leading the execution of transformational strategies to drive business growth in profit and not-for-profit. Competencies range from financial services, corporate governance, marketing, business development, enterprise risk management, management consultancy, ESG, transformation, tech, digital, data, analytics & insights and board effectiveness.

Passionate believer in people. Skilled at building cohesive high performing teams. Promotor of Diversity and Inclusion. Keynote speaker on leadership and gender equality.