

Stine Bratsberg, Partner / Head of strategy and transformation in EMA ESG Hub

20 years of experience as an advisor. The last 14 years specialized within the Sustainability/ESG field. Started, built up and sold two companies. Pure Consulting sold to KPMG in 2020. Build a strong ESG/Sustainability services in KPMG Norway. Last 1,5 year worked globally as Head of Strategy and Transformation in ESG EMA Hub. Now moving on to become owner and partner in a Strategy House from January 2024.

- Lead a Global Flagship program for KPMG launched during COP27; The Net Zero Urban program.
- One of the pioneers within the sustainability field. Advising large companies both private and public and family offices on Sustainability /ESG.
- Specialist on the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDG).
- Have extensive board experience, both from business, NGOs and entrepreneurs.
- Co Chair in Safe Planet a UNEP program concerning Chemicals and waste. Member of the advisory board SOS Save The Children Norway.
- Speaker and facilitator on the sustainability/ESG field, both in Norway and internationally.
- Holds lectures at Business schools in Norway.
- Won Olympic Gold in 1994 in Freestyle skiing.